Conflicts:

All dogs are taken on a first come basis. Champions or Specials dogs will have priority over class dogs. Should a conflict arise my assistant or another experienced handler will either start or show your dog, depending on the judge, your dog, and all the situations surrounding that particular event. I will NEVER be replaced by anyone who uses harsh or heavy handed techniques! Part of my job as your dog's handler is to train him/her to show well for any qualified replacement, but should I determine that being handled by a replacement handler will cause your dog undue stress I will pull your dog. Regular handling fees will still apply. All dogs that are boarding and traveling with me will have priority over any ringside dogs. Dogs that have been with me the longest or I have been showing the longest will have priority. I hope you will trust me on making the right decision to make your dog look and show its best.
